

Project Title

Author 1*

Author 2

Author 3

Author 3

Project Goal and Scope

The primary objective is to develop a photo-realistic 3D graphics rendering system in C++ utilizing advanced Path Tracing Techniques.

The specific target for the rendering competition is to accurately recreate an image of a chess scene [?] Achieving this level of visual fidelity requires a synthesis of custom geometric modeling, designing material properties, and a Path Tracer that handles shadows, and glass surfaces.

Accomplishments

Technical Details

Rendering Results and Experiments

Discussion

References